

PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Kenneth Edwins

Hamilton
Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, Hamilton PTA president, announces the completion of a successful membership drive. 448 members have been tallied by Mrs. Jack Cleveland and Mrs. Robert Becker, chairmen. Membership prizes winners are Mrs. Gualtieri's 1-2 grades and Miss Matthews' 6-7 grades. Hamilton's regular association meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 17 in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Arthur Stillwell, program chairman, plans to have a presentation of the multigrade techniques and a demonstration by the primary level. Mrs. Madeleine Woehliche, Miss Beverly Robinson and Mrs. Gloria Wade, multigrade teachers, will participate and evaluate progress at Hamilton School. Also on the program will be the Ladies' Barbershop Quartet, under the direction of Miss Syra Gold.

Newton
Newton's first PTA meeting was held recently with one of the largest groups in attendance in recent years. Mrs. Warren Post, president, presided and the flag salute was given by Boy Scout Troop 656C. "Meet the Staff at Newton" featured the introduction of all the teachers, the school secretary, and Mr. C. Richard Wallner, principal. Mrs. Post announced that Newton PTA will sponsor a Father and Son Night on Nov. 18. Movies of the 1959 Dodgers-Chicago Cubs World Series will be shown and refreshments will be served. Fathers and sons are asked to meet in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

Meadowpark
Members of the Meadow Park PTA were taken on a tour of the Education Materials Building, Torrance School District, as a part of their October meeting. Following the tour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Desmond McCarthy, Hospitality Chairman, and her committee. November's meeting "Flight Check," will be following the theme for the year "Flight 6061" and will feature a fire safety demonstration by Battalion Chief Worthington from the Torrance Fire Department.

Calle Mayor
"Understanding our Schools' Reading Program" is the subject of the regular November meeting of Calle Mayor PTA. This program will explain the total reading program, kindergarten through 8th grade. Each teacher will contribute to the meeting by explaining and demonstrating reading readiness, experience charts, phonics, comprehension, etc. Each classroom will display the materials used in their rooms for reading. A demonstration of a parent-teacher conference will be enacted to show a successful and unsuccessful parent-teacher conference. Mrs. Carol Fox and Mrs. Judy Lofgren's classes will be hostesses for the coffee hour with room mothers Mmes. Wallace Lott, B. L. Paul, Sheldon Goldenson and Albert Jakubowski serving.

Flavian
A quotation from Platus, "No Man is Wise Enough by Himself," will be the theme of the November PTA meeting which will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria, Nov. 17. An instructional demonstration by the Flavian faculty members will be featured and will be followed by a question and answer period. Mrs. C. C. DeVries, Library Chairman will be featured chairman. Child care will be available and Mrs. Jack Young, president, cordially invites all interested parents to attend. First grade mothers will hostess the coffee hour.

Jefferson
"We Pay tribute to the strong links" is the theme for the November PTA meeting. Members are asked to note that the meeting scheduled for Nov. 16 will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. After a brief business meeting, parents and teachers will go by car to the Educational Materials Building of the Torrance School District, for a tour which will be conducted by Jefferson faculty members. Following the tour all those attending are asked to return to the school for refreshments. Child care will be provided. Nov. 17, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. polio inoculations will be given in the school cafeteria.

Crenshaw
Crenshaw PTA will hold its regular meeting on Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria with the theme "Round the Campfire." The association will be entertained by a mixed chorus of approximately 100 students, under the direction of Mr. Ronald Large, Music Director of Crenshaw. In connection with "Book Month" members at Crenshaw are featuring the Crenshaw PTA library which is under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Perez, Library Chairman, and Mrs. B. A. Lisowski, co-chairman. There are now over 1,000 books in the collection and students are able to visit once a week. The first book drive was held in 1956.

PTA
Lomita
Monthly meeting of the Lomita Elementary School PTA board was held Tuesday morning, Nov. 2, in the home of Mrs. Ivan Smith, 25424 Feijoa Ave., Lomita.

The main item of discussion was the first evening PTA meeting which will be held Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. It will be "Fathers' Night." A film on the subject of mouth to mouth resuscitation will be shown. The newly organized group of mother singers will sing the inspirational and a skit will be presented by Den 2 of the cub scouts.

From profits made at the Hawaiian Festival last month, the school will be presented with a set of World Encyclopedia and Childcraft.

A letter approved by the 10th District PTA was read by Mrs. D. Gullickson, president, concerning Toys for Tots which will be held at the Los Angeles Sports Arena Dec. 3. The project is sponsored by the U.S. Marine Corps. Admission is an unwrapped new toy. Many TV stars will entertain and there will be circus acts.

Halldale
Movies for Lomita Elementary School children will be shown at the Strand Theater in San Pedro beginning Saturday, Nov. 19. The movies, sponsored by the PTA, will be shown every other Saturday from 12 until 2 p.m. to children from Kindergarten up to fourteen years of age.

Fathers' Night will be observed by the Halldale Avenue PTA at the association meeting Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Sgt. Earl Johansen, Juvenile Division, Los Angeles City Police Department, will speak on juvenile protection. A Santa Monica Barbershop Quartet will entertain with songs for fathers.

Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, principal, and the teachers will join with Mrs. Judson Bowers, PTA president, and the executive board members in serving pie and coffee following the meeting.

186th St.
At the board meeting of the 186th St. PTA, Mrs. Ernest Lozano, ways and means chairman, announced the receipts from the Fall festival were $1138.10 and would be used for welfare for the 186th St. school and two adopted schools.
Plans were also made for a Christmas tree to be purchased for the school auditorium and that room mothers furnish a favor and cookies for the Christmas party. PTA and the student body will buy the ice cream.
Evert Anderson, principal, announced a canned goods drive for Dec. 8 and 9. Half will go to the Gardena Clearing House and the other half remains at the school for welfare.
Members voted to take 25 gifts to the Gardena Council PTA meeting on Nov. 18.
Open House will be held at the next PTA meeting Nov. 15. Proceeds from the refreshments served at the Open House will be used to buy auto-harps for the school.

Philanthropy Discussed For Juniors

At the regular business meeting of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club held Wednesday, Nov. 9, at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., Torrance, Stanley Le Bon, president of the Gardena Valley Assn. for Retarded Children, informed the members of the progress of the training center. The Association is the major philanthropy of the Juniors for this year.

Until the regular building for the center is completed, morning and afternoon classes are being held in the Beth Torah Temple. The school has approximately twenty students at present. The classes are small, being limited to no more than twelve children. One of the

Welcome Baby
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sylvester, 2553 W. 230th St., have had as their guests for several weeks Mrs. Sylvester's mother, Mrs. E. O. Tandberg of Garretson, S. D. and her sister, Mrs. Lyle Fritze and son, Douglas of Minneapolis. The visitors came to Torrance to welcome the Sylvesters' new daughter, Lynn, born at the Little Company of Mary Hospital on Sept. 24.

main problems to be solved before the center can be enlarged will be to obtain more properly trained personnel, Le Bon said.
Also on the agenda for the evening was a film on Muscular Dystrophy which was presented by Dexter Fox. After the film, Mr. Fox gave a few facts on the subject and informed the members that there is at present no cure for this disease — the only hope is in research.

NASSAU VACATION . . . Dr. and Mrs. George L. Percy, 4921 Paseo Del Pavon, are pictured on the boarding deck of the SS Bahama Star on their cruise to Nassau recently. While in Nassau they had the opportunity of viewing historic sights in the "old world" city riding in a surrey. They also visited the many British shops and the popular Paradise Beach.

Baby Shower

Mrs. Luther Beard, Jr. was honoree at a baby shower given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Louis Bradvica at her home at 21226 Ladeene Ave.

Several games were played and each guestwrote a bit of advice for the new mother. From a table centered by a stork, the hostess served refreshments.

Attending the party with the hostess and honor guest were Mmes. R. J. Adler, E. K. Cunningham, David Knowlton, Philip Sayre, Theodore Flynn, William Lynn, and William Kaughan.

Sending gifts were Mrs. John C. Luedde and Miss Nancy Boyd.

Ohio Relatives Visit Hastings

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hastings, 2203 Gramercy Ave., have been entertaining Mr. Hastings's sister, Mrs. Alice Wolfe, a niece Miss Lila Raper and a nephew, Donald Wolfe of Tiffin, Ohio.

Mr. Hastings had not seen his sister and family in 30 years. During the Ohio visitors' stay here they were taken to Catalina, Disneyland, Marineland, Knott's Berry Farm, San Diego Zoo, Tiajuana, Griffith Park, China Town, Olvera St., and other places of interest.

A family dinner also highlighted the vacation here. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Hastings and daughter of Gardena.
